

University of Arkansas at Little Rock
College of Education
Tenure Track
Assistant/Associate Professor in Rehabilitation Teaching/Vision Rehabilitation Therapy

The University of Arkansas at Little Rock (UALR) College of Education, Department of Counseling, Adult and Rehabilitation Education (CARE) invite applications for an assistant/associate professor position in rehabilitation teaching/vision rehabilitation therapy for the blind, Job # R99449. The deadline for applications is January 8, 2010. The starting date will be August 16, 2010, pending availability of funding. The position is a twelve-month tenure-track position.

The Rehabilitation Teaching/Vision Rehabilitation Therapy program provides coursework leading toward a master's degree in Rehabilitation of the Blind with emphasis in Rehabilitation Teaching. Responsibilities include program coordination and recruitment, teaching online courses in the Rehabilitation Teaching master's program, conducting the hands-on workshops required with the online coursework, providing supervision to interns, participation in university and college committees, curriculum development, participation in the implementation of the program strategic plan; demonstration of scholarship/research; development of university/agency partnerships; service to the community, university, and professional organizations. Program information can be found on the website <http://ualr.edu/ma/rhblr/>

Requirements include: a Doctorate from an accredited institution in a closely related field, a master's or bachelor's degree in Rehabilitation Teaching, ACVREP certification in VRT, and a minimum of three successful years of direct rehabilitation teaching experience. An ABD may be considered, though degree must be completed by position start date of fall semester 2010. Preferred: university teaching experience, experience with teaching online, national service to the field of rehabilitation teaching. For more information about the university and the program visit, <http://www.ualr.edu>. UALR offers a competitive benefits package commensurate with background and experience.

To apply, submit a letter of application referencing job #R99449, current vita, official transcripts, and three current references with names, phone numbers and email addresses to: University of Arkansas at Little Rock, 2801 South University Avenue, Dr. Pat Smith, Chair, Rehabilitation Teaching Search Committee, Department of CARE, Little Rock, AR 72204. Electronic submissions are accepted: pbsmith@ualr.edu with req # R99449 on the subject line.

The University of Arkansas at Little Rock is an equal employment affirmative action employer and encourages applications from women, minorities, and persons with disabilities. Under Arkansas law, all applicants are subject to disclosure. Persons hired must have proof of legal authority to work in the United States.